

STAR WARS

” - The Labyrinths Of Coruscant - ”

- Adapted from the original story by Claus Frederiksen -

Milo Bezie.. A remote icy planet in the Holow-System.
Here the remains of the once so powerful band of Jedies and their fellowmen have taken refuge from the evermore powerful Dark Fleet lead by the evil Emperor Palpatin and his crooked followers... What the rebels do not know is that the dark fleet have intercepted information leading to their knowing of the rebel base at Milo Bezie...

Attention all units!!!
We are under Emperial attack!!!

GIVE FIRE!!!

At the same time in a corridor somewhere on the rebels' base...

Anakin, You must come now...
We are under increasing fire and it's only a matter of minutes before the shield is down . And that 's for good!!!

I will come!

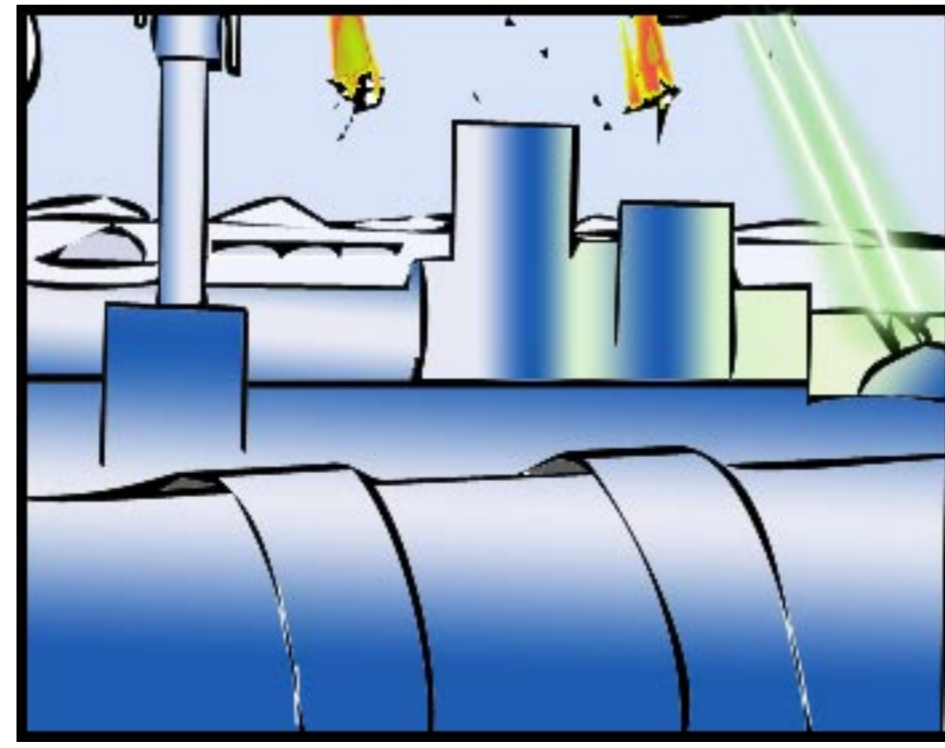

Come to Coruscant You must Anakin. Great danger for You I sense right now. With the help of the Force a cloak You have made, I sense too. Good that is. Aiming for the field generator they are. Leave now You must...

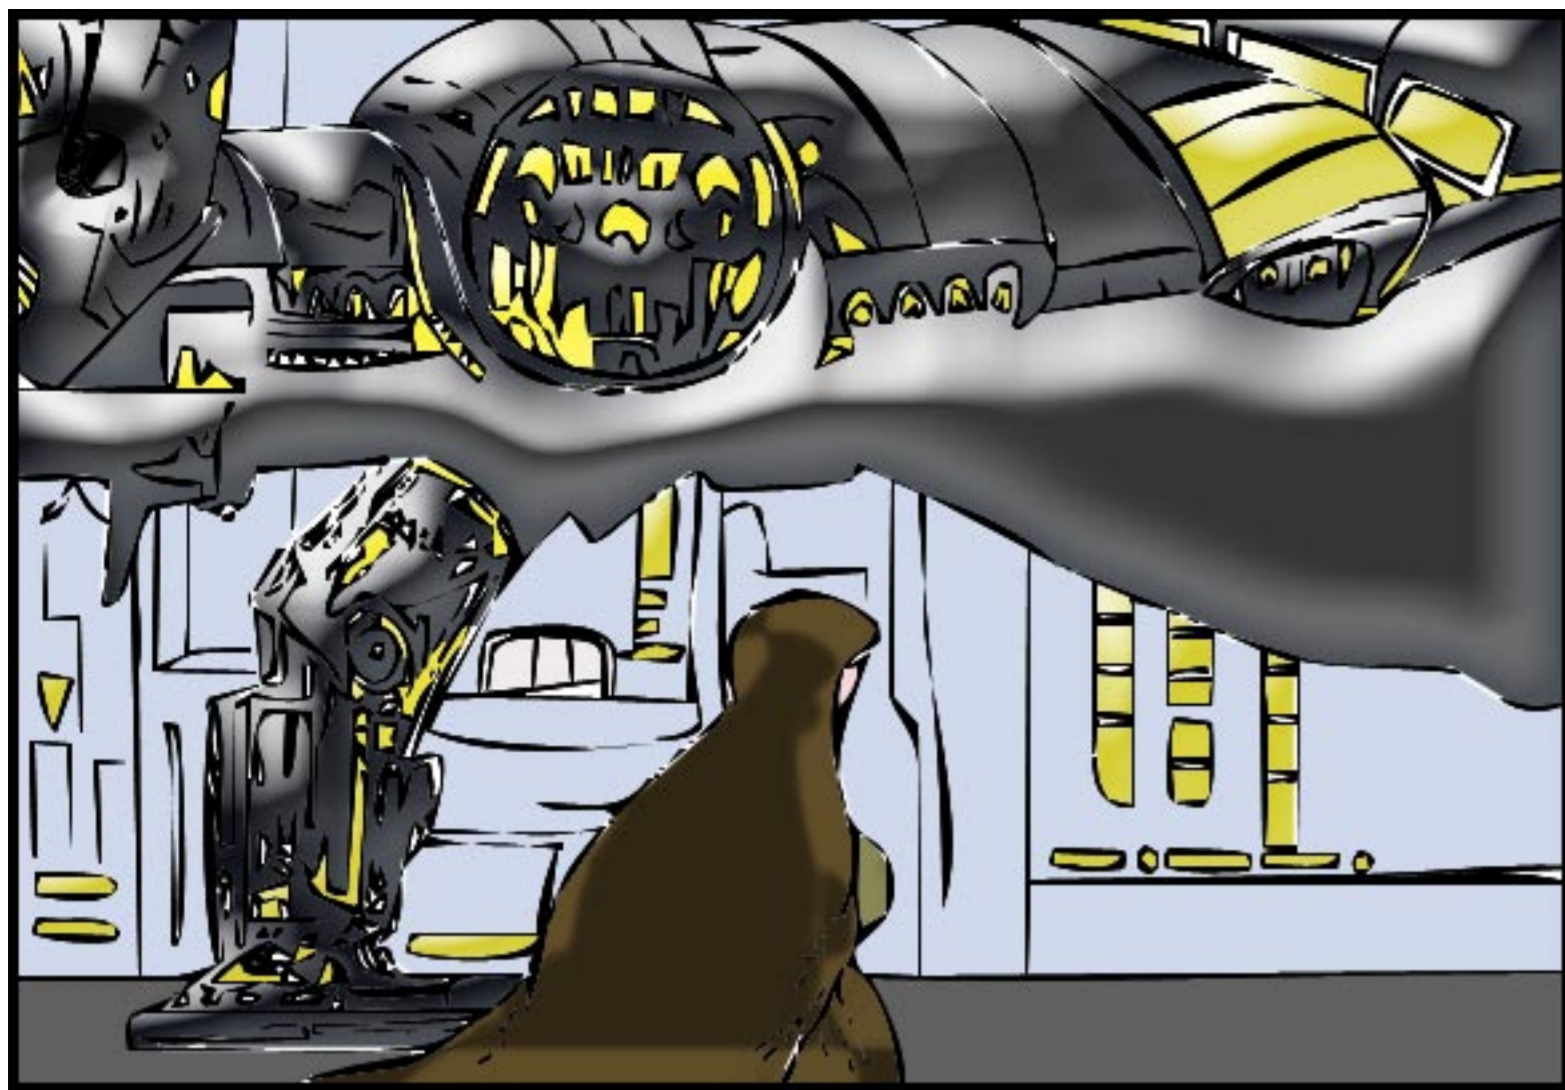

I sense it too Master Yoda. The Emperor wants to turn me to the Dark Side of the Force, but I will not give in, but leave to Coruscant!

Anakin merely escapes the Dark Fleet far above the surface of Milo Bezie where a great space battle is taking place...

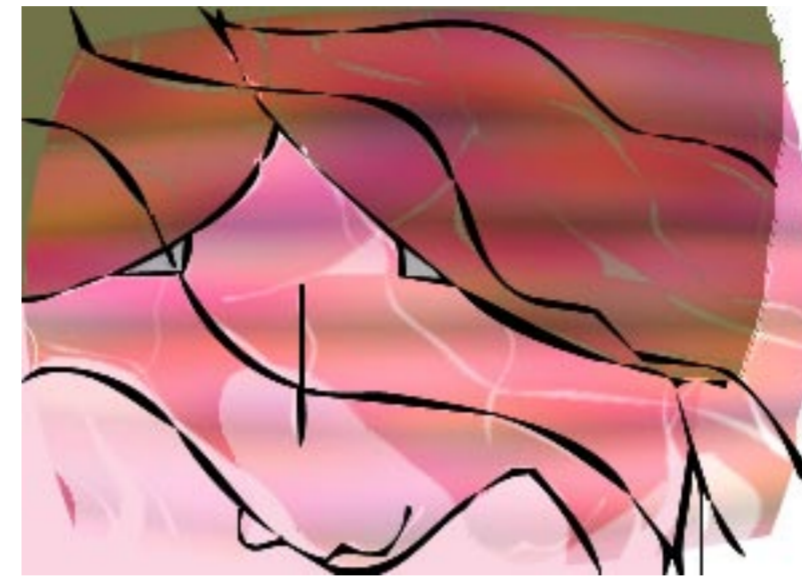

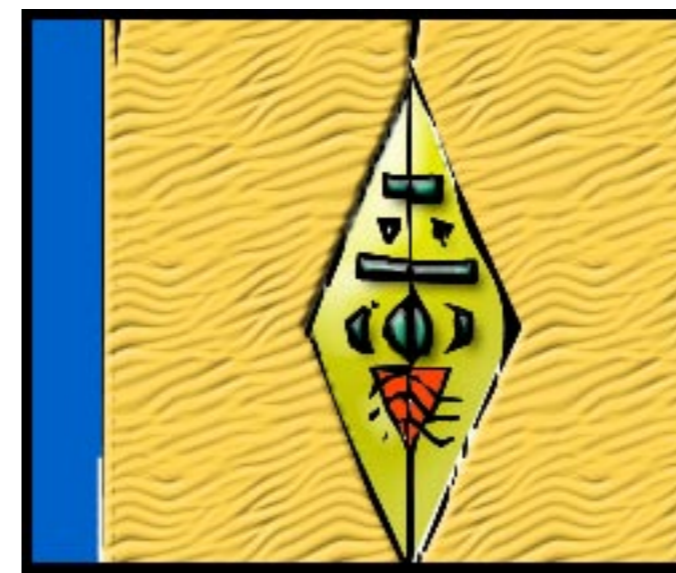

He safely jumps into hyperspace, but the Rebel Base is doomed...

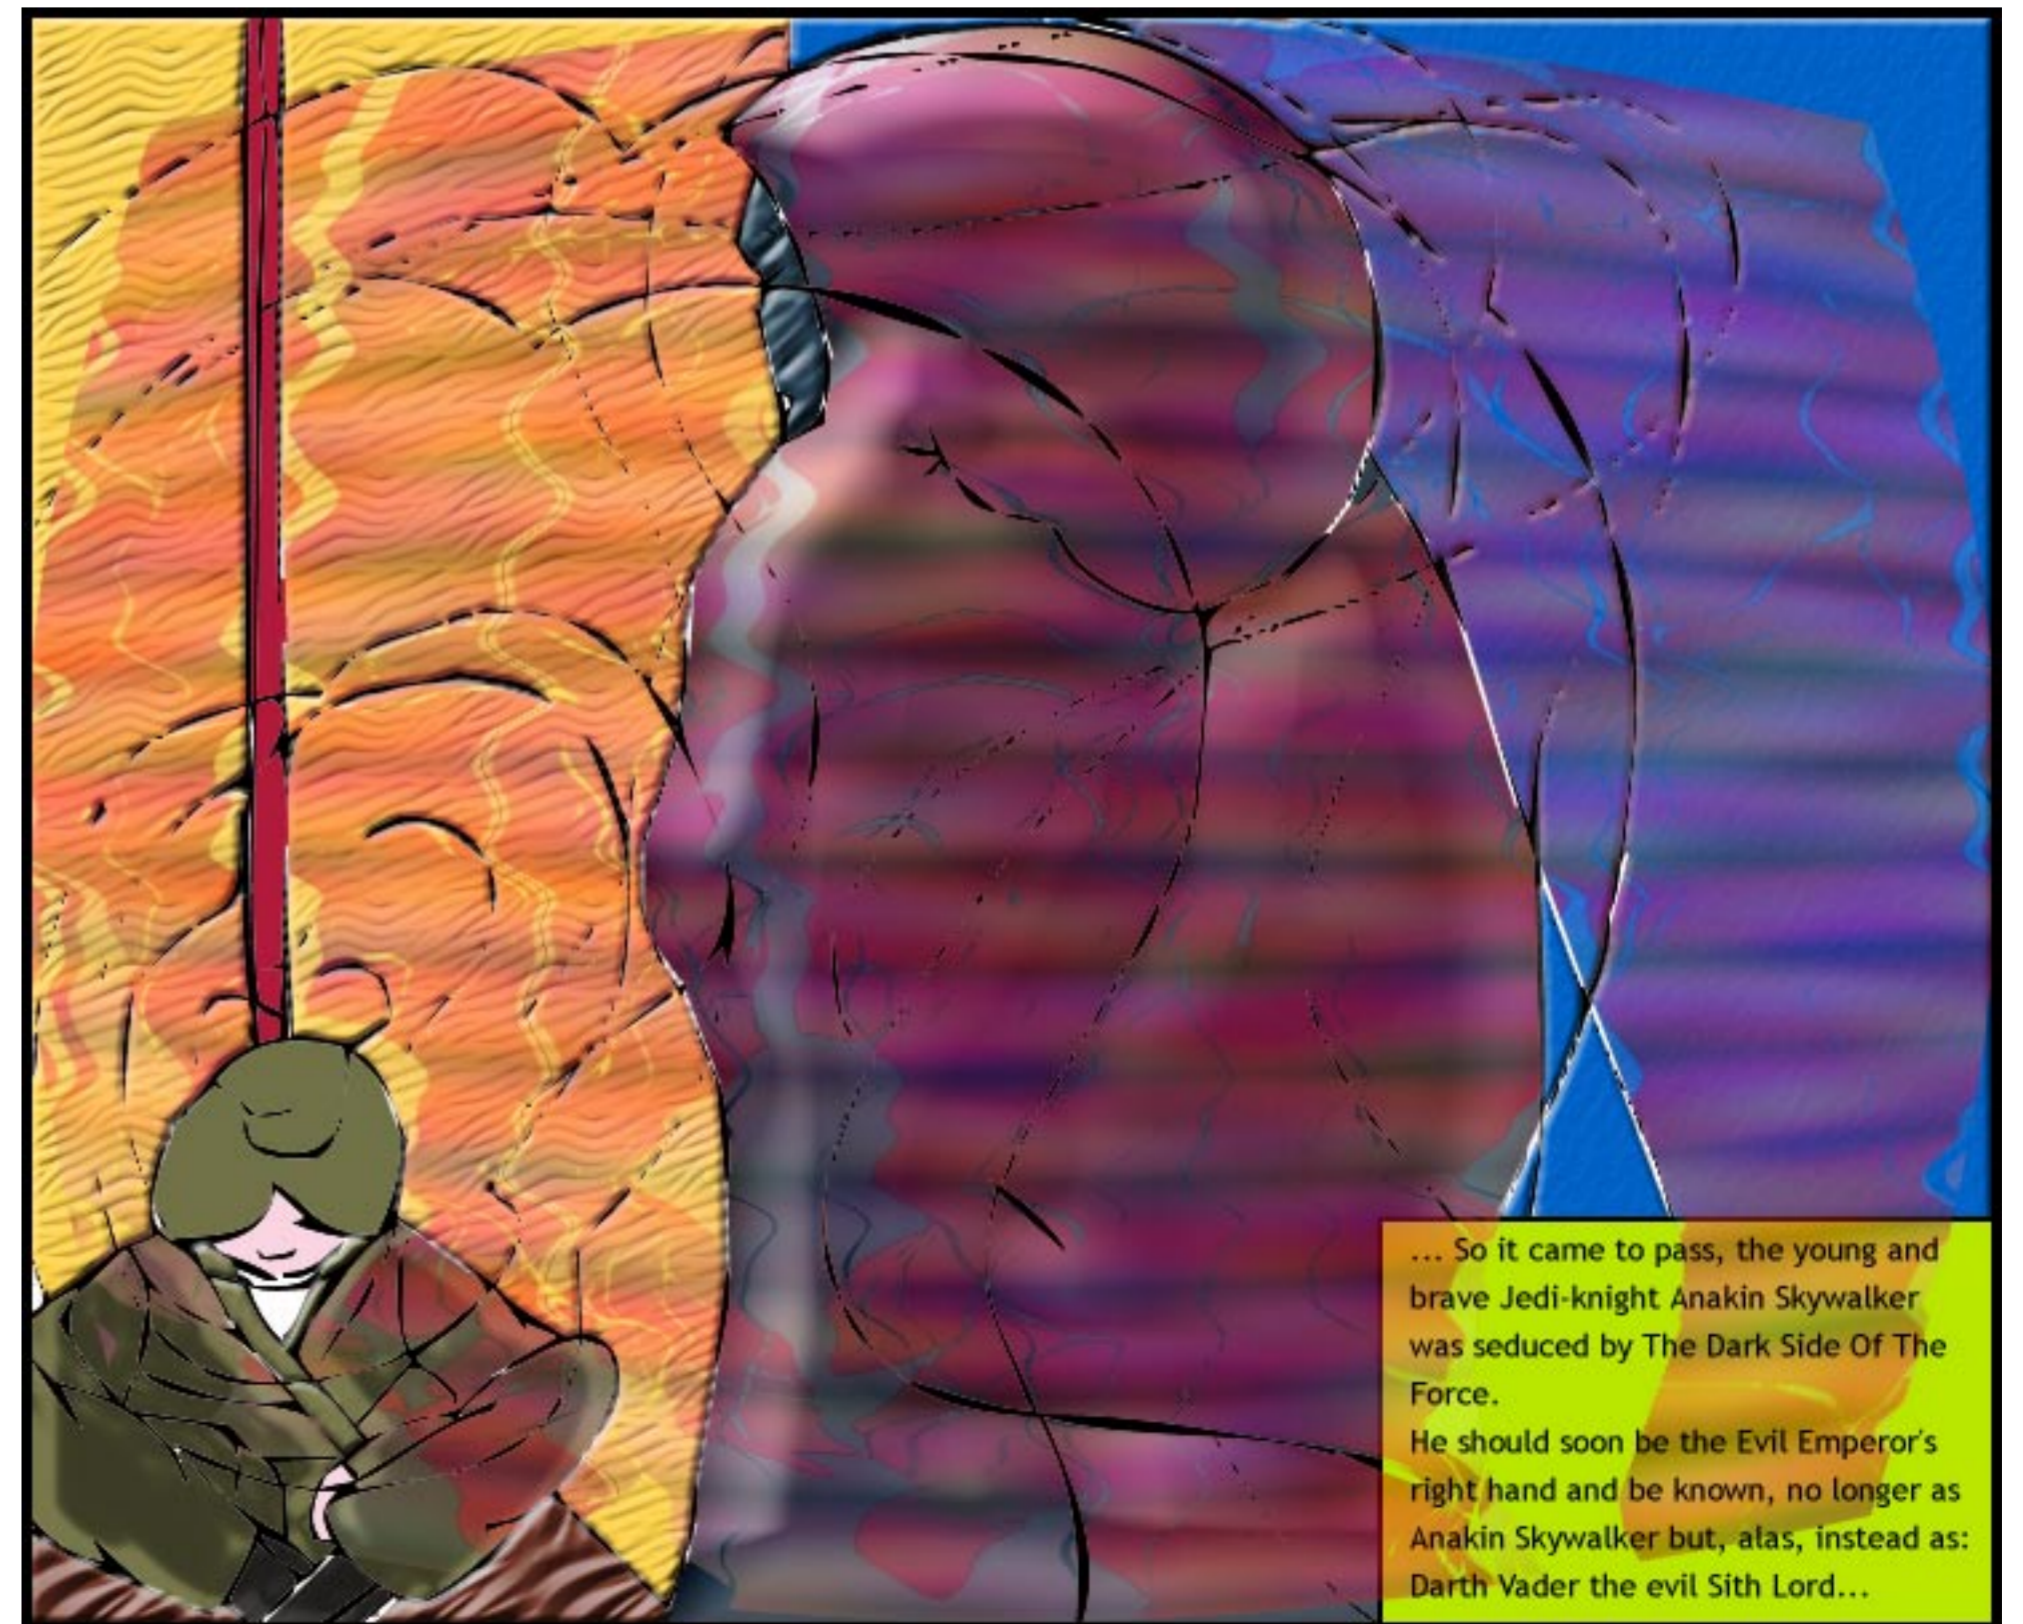

Safely arrived at Coruscant, Anakin hurries through the maze deep underneath the surface of the planet. Here the seat of the Jedicouncil has taken refuge...

Come quick You did, Padawan! Now into the future see You must. Meditate, release, let the Force flow through you!

Now go young Padawan!

Yes, Master Yoda!

... So it came to pass, the young and brave Jedi-knight Anakin Skywalker was seduced by The Dark Side Of The Force. He should soon be the Evil Emperor's right hand and be known, no longer as Anakin Skywalker but, alas, instead as: Darth Vader the evil Sith Lord...
